Intersectionality:
A Partial List of Resources to Generate Reflection and Conversation
Compiled by Gabrielle Nicolini, Nadaya A. Brantley, LMSW, and Karen E. Kirkhart, MSW, PhD
Syracuse University with appreciation to CREA colleagues for their contributions
******************************************************************************

Books:

Book Chapters:

Conference:

Truth, S. (1851, December). "Ain't I a Woman?" Lecture at Women's Convention, Akron, Ohio.

Dissertations:

Journal Articles:

Hancock, A. (2007). When multiplication doesn't equal quick addition: Examining intersectionality as a research paradigm. Perspectives on Politics, 5(1), 63-79. doi: 10.1017/S1537592707070065

Lecture:

Website Resource:

CRGE Consortium for Race, Gender, and Ethnicity (n.d.). In University of Maryland. Retrieved from http://crge.umd.edu/

